The Editor's Message.

I was not born in the Christian Church; never heard of it until I was in my twentieth year. When I did hear of it, I began to investigate its methods of work; its aims and purposes; and I soon reached the point where I refused a proffered gift of $800 to help me through school in preparation for the ministry from a popular denomination; and cast my lot with the people of whom I am proud to-day. I cannot express my feelings on paper, but as this 1906 Annual goes out on its mission, I want it to carry this message from me to all the ministers and churches belonging to us: First, that I have never been sorry for a moment that I joined hands with the Christians; and second, that I know of no people who have a better right to exist; who preach and live a better gospel; who enjoy more, or suffer more, than the people who are content to be called Christians.

I have had my mountains of transfiguration and my valleys of humiliation in preparing this volume for its usefulness. I have been made to feel something of the tremendous sacrifices made by many of our churches and ministers; I have been deeply touched by the kind words which have come in with the reports; I have learned to look at some of my brethren from a different viewpoint, and a wider vision of our possibilities and usefulness has been given.

I am quite sure of some things, among them are these: Good conference clerks should be kept in office for life. Our general officers should stop visiting our strong conferences and visit the weak ones—if they cannot visit all.

Conference clerks ought to send to the editor of the Annual the postoffice address of all ministers; but because it is just possible that the clerks may fail to do so, though the ministers seem to think they ought to, each minister should send his own.

As this bearer of tidings enters your home, try and see its virtues as well as its faults; and rest assured that no one desires it to be correct more than the one who has done his best to make it so. It is not an easy task, even when the reports are in. This one case will illustrate many: One minister was reported by two conference clerks in three different ways; after trying hard to get that minister in shape, and failing, I finally wrote to him asking him how many of him there were, and where they belonged!

Delays in getting the Annual out are hard to avoid; and we must remember that one or two conferences are held in December.

May we all be bound closer to one another, and to Him whose we are and whom we serve, is the earnest prayer of Faith, Hope and Love.

BY REV. ELIZA L. BROWN.

*Forward we look in hope. The psalmist's harp,
The prophet's loftiest strains are when they bid
The fainting soul take courage. He who spoke
Among the hills and vales of Galilee
As never yet man spake, and gave to hearts
Distressed beneath the burdens they had borne Uplift sublime, with higher, wider views
Of life and duty, waked not faith alone
In never dying truths, but hope and joy,
Unknown before to those who thronged his way.
"The common people heard him gladly;" loved
His words, "Fear not." "Be not afraid." To-day
These words fall gently on the weary heart,
And courage new inspire.*

*The passing year
Has showered blessings on life's varied paths.
Faith, hope and love have crowned each trusting soul.*

*To many homes the summons came that called
One forth to join the "choir invisible." And then,
Though sorrow's fountain was unsealed, and sighs
Escaped the mourner's lips, yet solemn joy
Pervaded souls that upward looked in faith;—
"The Father gave, and He hath taken away; E'en blessed be Jehovah's holy name."*

*For blessings manifold the past has known,
For all the blessings which the present gives,
For all the good the future holds in store,
Give heart-felt thanks. It is a Father kind,
And not a foe, who rules our destinies.*

*May faith, hope, love yet more and more prevail.
But love, the greatest of the holy three,
Makes in our lives a grand, undying song.
And on beyond, to realms of endless joy,
Out-going with each faithful, passing soul,
On earth, in heaven, dwells immortal love.*

Bishop, Dayton, Ohio; Vice-President, Mrs. Clellie Loback, Crawfordsville, Indiana; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Athella Howsare, Maple Rapids, Mich.; Corresponding secretary, Miss Orpha Adkinson, Winterset, Iowa; treasurer, Mrs. Ada O. Warbinton, Hagerstown, Indiana. Woman's Board for Foreign Missions—President, Rev. Ellen G. Gustin, Attleboro, Mass.; Vice-President, Rev. Emily K. Bishop, Dayton, Ohio; Recording Secretary, Miss Annie E. Batchelor, New Bedford, Mass.; Corresponding secretary, Miss Annie Libby, Saco, Maine; treasurer, Mrs. Mary J. Batchelor, New Bedford, Mass.

Mission Field Secretary—Rev. M. W. Borthwick, Defiance, Ohio.

Literature and Mite Box Secretary—Rev. Emily K. Bishop.

All money from woman's missionary societies should be sent to their respective treasurers, as above; for home missions to Mrs. Warbinton; for foreign missions to Mrs. Batchelor.

FINANCIAL.

The total receipts for the year for all purposes was $21,505.13, being an increase over the previous year of $2,366.77. There came through the Woman's Home Board $880.41, and through the Woman's Foreign Board $2,351.35. Both of the Woman's Boards made a small increase over the previous year. While cold figures—statistics—may indicate something as to visible results, they can by no means give the full meaning of the spiritual results of missionary work. While the receipts were some larger the outlay for the work was also larger, so the Board was compelled to commence the present year, beginning with October, with an almost empty treasury, depending wholly on the blessings of God, and the offerings of the people during the year to carry the work through the year.

BUILDINGS.

In the line of material prosperity we may mention the fact that a new Mission Home was erected during the year at Utsunomiya, Japan, at a cost of $300 for the ground.

which was donated by Mrs. Fry, and $2,000 for the building, which was furnished from this side of the water.

In the home field new mission churches were finished and dedicated at Coshocton and Lima, Ohio, and at Montesano, Wash.; at New London, Wis., a good building purchased for our mission church at Columbus, Ohio, and the erection of church buildings commenced at Denbigh, N. D., Rifle, Colo., and at North Greensboro, N. C.

MISSION LITERATURE.

At the head of this agency stands The Christian Missionary. As in every previous year since the commencement of its publication, there was some increase in its circulation. It was given a new dress and increased in size by a few pages. Of it there were printed during the year 1,741,903 pages, 363,100 more pages than were printed the previous year. This magazine, the official missionary organ of the denomination, well deserves a place in the homes of many more of our people; and many more homes, as well as the cause of the Lord, would be helped by the information and the inspiration and the spiritual uplift which its reading would impart. FIFTY CENTS a year puts it within the easy reach of almost every one.

Of missionary Tracts and Leaflets there were printed, by the mission department, last year about 75,500 copies, something more than in the previous year.

PRESENT FORCE AND NEEDS.

We now have about sixty workers nearly equally divided between Japan and Porto Rico, and the United States. Those in Japan and Porto Rico are depending nearly entirely on the home treasury for their support, while those in the United States are dependent only in part on mission funds, as more or less is paid by the home congregation. But, as the needs are demanding, we plead for more prayer, more interest, more co-operation, and for more MONEY for all lines of our missionary work, for workers and for buildings.

Two collections are authorized to be taken by all Christian churches during the year for missions. One the second Sunday in March for Foreign Missions and one the second Sunday in June for Home Missions. To these collections all branches of the church including the Sunday-school and the C. E. Society are expected to contribute.

GENERAL MISSIONARY STATISTICS.

The American Board Almanac for 1906 gives the following summary of the statistics of the foreign missionary work done by the Protestant churches of the United States for the last year: Stations and Out-stations, 9,315; Missionaries—men 1,779, women 2,583—4,363; Native Laborers, 22,982; Communicants, 523,982; Added during the year, 31,715; Receipts for the work, $7,060,701. Total for the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Ireland and Continental Europe: Stations and Out-stations, 20,641; Missionaries, men and women, 11,157; Native Laborers, 65,286; Communicants, 1,325,885; Added during the year, 103,732; Receipts for the work, $15,151,368.

The chief problem in the larger missionary life of the church depends upon the vision and faith and general attitude of the preacher. Given preachers who can see the unseen, who are willing to undertake the seemingly impossible, who have faith in God and in the willingness of His church, men of large plans, of tact and industry, men who believe that the chief mission of the church is to hold up Christ to the world that the sin-bitten peoples thereof may look (believe) and be saved, and—the task is half done.

The church gives too little for missions when she gives large money for her own consumption. She has been spending upon herself the money vested in her as a guardian, while the wards of her care have been permitted to pine away and die for lack of the only bread that can sustain life.

* * * *

If there is a jubilee in hell it is when a minister of the gospel opposes or puts a stumbling-block in the way of world-wide conquest for Christ.

WHAT THEY ARE DOING.

This list of institutions and their presidents represents unmeasured influences and forces for educational evangelism. From this source (for several reasons), the Convention may reasonably expect greater things than in the past. The material equipment is enlarging. Defiance has dedicated a Ladies' Dormitory, "Trowbridge Hall," representing an expenditure of $18,000. Franklinton is purchasing an eighty-two acre farm for industrial departments, some lines of which are at present followed. Union is raising a $15,000 repair and improvement fund, and Elon is building a $20,000 Ladies' Hall.
Starkey has enlarged her borders, annexed a farm and buildings, and shown herself alive to opportunities and good works. The success of these forward lines for the year are definitely assured. In addition, Palmer plans the purchase of an adjoining farm, and the Biblical Institute an increase of her endowment, with some degree of promise for success.

More than two hundred students are doing work above the high school grade—that is, in standard college courses; more than four hundred in academic courses, and more than a hundred in Biblical and theological courses. In addition to these, many pursue other courses, preparatory, special, professional or business. Forty-six teachers are reported as giving their whole working time to these institutions and students, and more than twenty others render services of various kinds and for varying seasons.

The endowment of a denominational chair at Queen's College, Ontario, is still among the things hoped for, though the money has not been solicited. Some students from our churches and of exceptional quality have been drawn to the institution with most gratifying results to themselves, to their friends, and to the college. The plan of endowment and centralization for college work in the east at Queen's proves expedient with other denominations and at other large institutions. We only wait to assure ourselves that it is in all respects practicable in this case.
If so, we shall have added at small outlay, one of the best equipped and most thorough schools to the list from which we may expect returns of efficient workers to our ripe fields.

THE WORK OF THE BOARD.

It has not proved practicable to make loans to ministerial students, or to grant appropriations to different schools to be used for ministerial education, according to the discretion of the faculties concerned. Neither have we been able to secure co-operation of the schools, through their representatives, for the establishment of college entrance requirements and standards on which the various degrees shall be bestowed. Most of the things specified by the Norfolk Convention as desirable for this department to bring to pass, have so far been beyond reach. The problems are changing somewhat and at the coming Quadrennial meeting various vital matters should be handled thoroughly.

SOME PROBLEMS.

That some of the educational problems may be in mind and possibly find solution in advance of the next A. C. C. gathering, they are named here.

1. The revision of the published course of ministerial study, so as to make it the best practicable and most adaptable.

2. Should the church schools be expected to duplicate courses in the state schools of their respective localities, to offer equivalents of such courses, or rather to supplement such courses, by providing for special needs?

3. To what extent should hope for centralization and industrialization among our schools be entertained and encouraged?

4. How is a Divinity School, providing instruction for college men, to be realized?

5. Can an endowment held by the Convention for the benefit of its Educational work be created?

6. Since perhaps no man is acquainted with all our schools, might they be better advised and more efficiently aided by a secretary employed by the Convention or the Educational Board, giving his time to the schools and their interests, visiting each annually and giving by lecture or otherwise, such courses of instruction as all need but each cannot provide for itself?

FINANCES.

The collections and disbursements for last year were somewhat more than $2,000. With the exception of small administrative expenses this was appropriated among the various schools according to the basis set forth in the last annual.

GENERAL.

The Secretary hopes that time and means will permit the visitation of each of our institutions not previously visited during this quadrennium, that our peculiar needs may thereby be better understood, and a report from the whole field be given not on general principles, but according to particular and specific facts.

The common desire for the best in educational work is manifest by the leaders of our schools in attendance at great national or sectional educational gatherings. According to our faith it shall be unto us, and according to our loyal devotion shall we render acceptable service.

MARION W. BAKER.
Educational Secretary.

Sunday-School Department.

(Rev. Thomas S. Weeks, Secretary.)

DEAR SUNDAY-SCHOOL WORKERS:—We greet you once again in the Annual message. We wish you a Happy New Year, happy in service, and best of all, happy in the realization of success. We bespeak for all of you the joy of harvest.

May we come to the end of the year bringing sheaves. But as "God giveth the increase," we must plant and water, believing that "they that sow in tears shall reap in joy."

Has progress marked the year that has passed? This is a question to be answered by each and all: by the individual worker, by the school, by the conference, and by the denomination.

First. By the individual. Have you been a faithful student of the word? Have you made progress into truth? Have you taken advantage of the multitude of helps and helpers which are available for Sunday-school workers in this age?

Do you know the truth you teach better than one year ago?

Are the lambs of your little flock nearer the fold of the Chief Shepherd than one year ago?

Second. Is your school progressive? Have you tried any of the modern methods in Sunday-school work? Did you give them a fair trial? Have you a graded school? Have you a Normal Class? Have you a Home Department? Have you a Cradle Roll? Have you been represented in the town, district, county, or state Convention? Did you find an ideal and an inspiration there, or did you come home discouraged because you could not reach the ideal at once and without strenuous effort?

Have you observed any of the special anniversary days in your school? Children's Day? Rally Day? Decision Day? Graduation Day? Try these. Does your school teach The Great Commission as the sum and substance of Christian duty? What is your school doing toward world-wide evangelization? How many consecrations have been openly acknowledged during the year? Upon the Christian education gained in your school depends very largely what each consecration means for the kingdom of God.

Third. Is your Conference progressive?

Has it a Sunday-school Department? Has it a Sunday-school Secretary? Is he alive? Do you have a Sunday-school Institute? Do you give the Sunday-school work a large place on your Conference program? Do you send statistics to the Conference Secretary? Some of you do not. He says so.

Fourth. Denominationally, we have made some progress during the year: Our Sunday-school Editors have done good work. Our lesson helps and our Sunday-school papers were never better than now, and the Quarterlies have been greatly improved. Have you observed the change? Perhaps you have not seen them. Send for samples at once. Fuller patronage will warrant further improvement.

We are gathering Sunday-school statistics, and they are bringing us some surprises, some glad and some sad.

The coming Convention should give us a new impulse for Sunday-school work. We expect to have an up-to-date program for the Sunday-school Department. We expect to ask the Convention for some things, and we hope to get them.

Our motto for 1906 must be, Forward All Along the Line. Yours for progress,

THOS. S. WEEKS,

Report of Christian Endeavor Societies, 1905.

To get a complete report appears to be impossible. It is necessary to get as complete a report as possible to be given at the next session of the American Christian Convention to be held next October. So in this report I will briefly give our numerical strength as warranted by the various reports now on file.

In June next carefully prepared blanks will be sent—a dozen times, if necessary—to all societies, urging a complete report from every Christian Endeavor society in the denomination.

A careful compilation of the various reports will be made, read at the Convention, then placed on file with the new C. E. Secretary of A. C. C.

UNION CHRISTIAN COLLEGE.

REV. C. J. JONES, D.D., President.

life; imparting, by example, the Christian motive. This is the one safeguard—the true ideal—of education. This element belongs to every great school, whether the students are few or many.

The Christian College is the best place in this world to prepare for a well rounded life, and hence a true success.

In the opinion of able educators Union Christian College is favorably located. The town is quiet, healthful, moral. A residence community surrounded by excellent farms; an abundance and extensive variety of fruit; and, although about two miles from Merom Station, on the Illinois Central Railroad, has good gravel roads and telephone and telegraph privileges. No licensed saloons nor gambling dens. Athletic grounds and a wholesome spirit of recreation give zest to outdoor exercise.

The churches and Christian Associations maintain regular religious services. The Literary Societies afford excellent practice in oratory and debate. The Lecture Association, composed of the faculty, students and citizens, provides for the ablest speakers and entertainers to be had through the lecture bureaus.

The school trains teachers, lawyers, doctors and farmers as well as preachers. There is no cast or creed to hinder a full and free pursuit of study in any line of honorable scholarship. A full correspondence course is offered to all who cannot attend the College in person.

The larger number of students thus far, have become teachers. Many have taken up courses leading to the practice of law and medicine. Some have prepared for business, some for farming, and still others for the distinctly literary professions—like journalism.

In choosing a school, we naturally take into account various qualities; and no single institution may properly lay claim to a monopoly of educational excellence. Institutions, however, like persons, have individual characteristics, a history peculiarly their own.

U. C. College has behind it a record of more than forty years. The school is no longer an experiment. Hundreds of her representatives are now filling honorable and lucrative positions of service in almost every calling in life. Merit wins in the end, and the college has studiously tried in all her history to deserve a fair share of patronage. Speaking of the management, I desire to thank the many donors and earnest workers whose co-operation during the past two years particularly, has made the outlook bright by opening a large field of expansion and, we trust, of efficiency. The greatest present need is more students.

We confidently affirm that the cost of sound instruction and living at Merom is much lower than in the larger towns and more wealthy institutions. We aim to give the poor boy or girl a chance for the best things in college life and discipline.

The religious life of our young people should be wisely and naturally directed. Man is a moral as well as a physical and intellectual being, and the institution that fails to provide food for the spiritual life is failing in the most vital element of sound training. Mere ethics, as a philosophy, is not enough; we need to touch the inner springs of the religious life; imparting, by example, the Christian motive. This is the one safeguard—the true ideal—of education. This element belongs to every great school, whether the students are few or many.

Publication Department.

The Herald of Gospel Liberty.

This journal is the property of the Christian Publishing Association, and is published at Dayton, Ohio, at $1.50 a year. The Christian Publishing Association includes in its membership all the members of the American Christian Convention, which is the general representative body of the Christians. Hence, the Christian brethren at large control the Herald of Gospel Liberty; by their delegates electing the editor every four years, and also the trustees of the corporation. These trustees are nine in number, and if a vacancy occurs in the editorship the trustees have the right to fill it. They have even the right to remove the editor (by a two thirds vote of the full board) "for cause." The business of the paper is managed by the trustees through the publishing agent whom they themselves elect. The editor's term of office begins on January 1st. J. J. Summerbell was first elected by the "Quadrennial" at Haverhill, Massachusetts, in October, 1894, and began his service on January 1st, 1895. He was re-elected at Newmarket, Ontario, in 1898, and at Norfolk, Virginia, in 1902.

The Herald of Gospel Liberty is the only newspaper published by the Christians whose editorial control is determined by the whole brotherhood. It is and has steadily been the purpose of our people to make it fully representative for all geographical sections, even though some sections have newspapers devoted to the local needs. For instance, Prof. J. N. Dales, A. M., is the editor of the Christian Vanguard, devoted to the needs of Ontario; yet he is a trustee of the Christian Publishing Association, and serves regularly. E. L. Goodwin, Esq., is closely connected with the Christian Messenger, devoted especially to the interests of New England; but serves regularly on the board of the C. P. A. Rev. W. W. Staley, D.D., is closely sympathetic with the Christian Sun, devoted to the interests of the south; but serves regularly on the board of the C. P. A. There has never been any attempt to interfere with the rights of these brethren as managers of the Herald, on the ground that their prejudices might be supposed to be connected with other journals. And this broad spirit of fraternity has found full sympathy in the editorial management of the Herald, which has ever been ready to assist in advancing the enterprises of all sections, without a shadow of prejudice.

The paper at the present time is prosperous, and commands the attention of the press of other denominations. Its words are quoted frequently, sometimes with credit, and sometimes without.

Much of the space of the Herald of Gospel Liberty is used regularly in the furtherance of the interests carried on by the general church; and this space is lost for ordinary attractiveness to the general reader, and that feature militates against increase of subscription list outside of our own denomination; but the paper is the best vehicle for bringing these interests to the knowledge of our brethren, both as to promptness and general distribution; and this fact makes it necessary to continue the policy: for our laymen cannot know these things well otherwise, because the allusions of the pastors to them must necessarily be infrequent and brief, and chiefly when general offerings are asked for. The Herald of Gospel Liberty is needed by the pastor for his own knowledge of church news and progress; and he needs it in his church that his people may constantly be informed in matters which he cannot take the time nor energy to bring before them. The families that take the paper are incomparably more likely to be good supporters of the pastor and faithful to the church than those families which neglect it.

The publishing agent, to whom all business letters should be addressed, is J. N. Hess, Dayton, Ohio.

Among the editors of the Herald of Gospel Liberty and Gospel Herald, which disappeared into the former, have been such men as I. N. Walter, J. P. Watson, John Ellis, H. Y. Rush, James Williamson, A. W. Coan, D. P. Pike, N. Summerbell, C. J. Jones, Elias Smith and other great writers, whose names we do not now take time to recall. Almost all of them have been gloriously faithful to the great trust in their hands.

J. J. SUMMERBELL.

The Christian Sun.

The Christian Sun was born in a log cabin in Orange County, North Carolina, January, 1844. Its foster father was Elder D. W. Kerr, who, besides being an editor was a school teacher and preacher. It was first issued as a monthly, in magazine form.

The first issue of the paper is now in The Christian Sun office and contains a list of its first subscribers. Nor is it without significance that many of the same name, appearing on that first subscription list, are on the subscription list to-day. Indeed an elderly brother told us recently that his father sent him, when quite a lad, to the postoffice for the first issue of The Christian Sun, "and it has been coming into our home, first to father's, then to mine, ever since."

From its incipency until now the paper has enjoyed the confidence, esteem and for the most part, the willing support of the constituency it has endeavored to serve.

Succeeding Elder Kerr, Rev. H. B. Hayes was editor for a term of years. He was succeeded by Rev. W. B. Wellons, who moved the place of publication from Raleigh, N. C., to Suffolk, Va. It is doubtful if there has lived a man in the Southern Christian Convention who did more for all interests and enterprises of the church than did Dr. Wellons. Under his management The Sun increased its subscription list and was put on a secure foundation. From his day to this the paper has enjoyed a sure, safe and steady growth.

The succeeding editors were J. T. Whitney, Rev. J. P. Barrett, Rev. M. T. Walker, Rev. W. G. Clements, and Prof. E. L. Moffitt.

The paper is now the property of the Southern Christian Convention, in fact as well as in name, that body having made the purchase in May, 1904., and elected as editor and manager, J. O. Atkinson. It is now an eight-page, five-column paper, issued every Wednesday from the press at Elon College, N. C., and has a circulation of 3,000 copies weekly. The people of the Southern Christian Convention believe in The Christian Sun, and their loyalty to the cause and love for the paper have made it what it is to-day—a good religious and family weekly, devoted to the cause of Christianity and dedicated to the service of the kingdom under the direction of the Christians. "In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, liberty; in all things charity" is the motto that the management of The Christian Sun has ever tried to adhere to.

J. O. ATKINSON.

Elon College, N. C.

The Christian Messenger.

The mission of the Christian Messenger is to help on the cause of Christ. It aims to do this by devoting its energies especially to the interests of the Christian churches in New England. The members of these churches, together with their pastors, feel the need of a paper devoted to their own local interests, which shall give the news from the various fields and also help and inspire in the several departments of their work, and at the same time breathe the true spirit of the Kingdom of Heaven in its larger sense. It advocates the principles of the Christians and Christian fellowship as broad as the spirit of Jesus.

It has an editorial board of five members, all of whose work is gratuitous, and it is owned and controlled by the New England Missionary Society. Its work is that of a denominational religious weekly devoted to the welfare of the church universal.

It is all but impossible to forecast its prospects beyond the present year. Its problems at present are financial ones. It is sustained by the incomes from subscriptions, Sunday-school supplies, and gifts, the amount of which is not equal to its needs.

As a religious publication, it has done good, it is now doing good, and we hope for its continued life and usefulness.

The Christian Vanguard.

J. N. Dales, M. A., Kingston, Ont., Editor.
W. G. Sargent, B. A., Toronto, Ontario, Business Manager.

This is a Canadian periodical published every alternate week by the conference of the Christian church in Ontario. It is already reaching up to the stature of manhood, for the front page bears the assuring promise of Volume XV. Its influence and patronage has grown slowly but steadily since its first number was issued.

In Canada we are in the swing of prosperity financially. In the midst of aggressive development of every external kind we must look well to our spiritual growth. The Vanguard appeals to the head as well as to the heart, and it champions the cause of the Christians because the New Protestantism for which the Christian movement stands, means more open-eyed, as well as bigger-hearted Christianity.

It stands for Christian union and opposes sect aggrandizement. It believes firmly that the message of the Christians will yet be heard to the ends of the earth. The union of the denominations is not at hand. Creeds and names divide Christ's followers by great, fixed gulfs. The real issue is not the union merely of a few sects. The stewardship with which the Christians have been divinely invested, will only be completely fulfilled, when at the name of Jesus every knee shall bow, and own him Master and Lord of all.

J. N. DALES.

The Christian Missionary.

AUTHORITY AND ORIGIN.

The American Christian Convention held at Marion, Ind., in October, 1890, adopted the following:

"We recommend that the Secretary of Missions be authorized and instructed to edit and publish a paper to be devoted to the interests of mission work."

At the New England Convention held in June, 1893, the following was adopted:

"WHEREAS, We deeply deplore the lack of missionary interest among our people, therefore, Resolved, That we look anxiously forward to the time when a monthly paper of this description shall be published."

And at the annual meeting of the same convention, held in June, 1894, the following was adopted:

Resolved. That in the opinion of this society, the time has come when there should be undertaken the publication of a Missionary Magazine, devoted to the work of missions in the department of home and foreign.  That we request the General Board of Missions, with the co-operation of the Woman's Board of Home Missions and the Woman's Board for Foreign Missions, to undertake this work at the earliest practical moment."

The matter of commencing the publication of such a magazine, as had been authorized by the General Convention, was by the Mission Secretary brought to the attention of the Mission Board at every meeting of the Board during the quadrennium following 1890. But no action was taken until July, 1894, when the Board authorized the publication of one number, as an experiment.

THE FIRST NUMBER.

was issued bearing date, October, 1894. The same month of the issuance of the first number, at Haverhill, October, 1894, the General Convention endorsed it, and the Mission Board authorized its continuance. At the following Convention, at Newmarket, October, 1898, it was adopted as "The Official Missionary Organ of the Denomination." Its monthly publication has continued until the present time. It is now in its twelfth volume.

The first number contained sixteen pages, and no number has contained less. In 1902 it was enlarged to twenty-eight pages, with cover pages added. The size has since been increased to thirty-six pages, including cover pages. Special numbers have had additional pages, running as high as eighty-four pages.

The price, which was fixed at fifty cents a year, has never been increased, though the magazine has been enlarged and improved from time to time.

THE NAME.

The name of the magazine—The Christian Missionary—very well indicates its character. It aims to help to an earnest, consecrated, deeply spiritual, and consequently useful Christian life; and in spirit and teaching it is missionary in its fullest and broadest sense. From its first issue to the present date the magazine has not published a single word against any phase of true missionary work, any where, from "Jerusalem" (one's own home), "to the uttermost part of the earth." (Acts 1:8). It has been a potent factor in creating what growth has been made in the home and foreign missionary sentiment and work of the Christians during the past twelve years.

From the commencement it has been edited and published by the Mission Secretary except for two years, from October 1902-04, it was published by another. The Presidents of the Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Boards, and the C. E. Secretary of the American Christian Convention have been corresponding associate editors of their respective departments.

CIRCULATION.

In the increase of its patronage and consequent usefulness it has had a steady growth from its commencement. During the last year—year closing October 1st, there were printed 41,850 copies, a total of 1,741,900 pages, 363,100 more than the year before. In its nature and adaptation it is in no sense local, but belongs equally to our people—of the Christian church—wherever they reside. Its subscribers are found in thirty-three states, two territories, Canada, Germany, Brazil, Porto Rico, and Japan. It may be found in the reading rooms of our colleges, and in some of the public libraries of our country. It goes as an exchange to the editorial tables of the larger number of the missionary periodicals of this country, as well as to some in Europe and the Orient. As our representative in these missionary centers, it guarantees a knowledge of our missionary work and its record in the history of the age.

To take and read The Christian Missionary is to learn in particular of the home and foreign missionary work of the Christians, as can be learned from no other or from all other sources; and, in general, to keep in touch with the grandest and divinest enterprises of the ages.

J. G. BISHOP, Mission Secretary.

The Young People's Worker.

This young WORKER was born at Raleigh, North Carolina, July 1, 1904; its mission is in the interests of the Sunday-schools and the young people of the Southern Christian Convention.

To Rev. Murdock M. Butler, the secretary of the Sunday-school Department of the Southern Christian Convention, the Worker not only owes its birth, but its life as well; for Brother Butler carried all the responsibilities and duties as editor and publisher for the first year. By the end of the first year he had the great satisfaction of seeing it on a self-supporting basis, and the prospects are so bright now, that, with a few changes, it should find a field of usefulness in the entire religious body of the Christians, as it is the only publication of its kind published by our people. In fact, it has already been suggested by some of its northern friends, that it ought to have a general Christian Endeavor Department, and some connection with the Christian Publishing Association. This would mean a larger field of usefulness for the paper, and more help for all our young people.

The Worker's motto is, "Better organization; more efficient service; greater loyalty to the work; deeper spiritual life."

Some of the best writers among us have contributed to its columns, and the press has given it very complimentary notices.

Rev. Murdock M. Butler, Henderson, N. C., is editor-in-chief, and Rev. Edward French, Raleigh, N. C., is business manager. Then there is a normal training department, edited by Rev. Edward French; a Home Department, edited by Mrs. M. W. Butler, and a Primary Department, edited by Mrs. S. M. Smith. All these departments mean much to the readers of the paper.

This quiet little Worker has already quickened the life of the Sunday-schools of our Southern churches, and is destined to bring about better organization, better study and more intense spirituality. It is only 35c per year, and is published monthly.

HENRY CRAMPTON.

The Afro-Christian Messenger.

This paper is less than one year old, having been established at Franklinton, N. C., last July. It "is published in the interest of the Afro-Christian Convention, the several Christian conferences in connection with the Home and Foreign Mission work, and its Educational Institution at Franklinton."

The editor is Rev. H. E. Long, president of Franklinton College.

It is a monthly visitor in many homes, and its message is not an uncertain one. The editor will be glad to receive all the encouragement possible in the form of 50-cent subscriptions, for, as he says, they "have undertaken great things for the cause."

HENRY CRAMPTON.

Sunday-School Literature.

On account of the long illness of Dr. Watson, I did not ask him to write an article for the Sunday-school literature; all of which is of high grade, and the yearly circulation is about as follows: Sunday-school Herald, 11,000 copies; Bible Class Quarterly, 27,000; Intermediate Quarterly, 25,000; Little Teacher, 15,000.—HENRY CRAMPTON.

A Friendly Tribute to Elder Elijah Williamson.

Elijah, son of Francis and Elizabeth Williamson, was born in Hartford County, North Carolina, May 2, 1804. In early life he received a good English education. In 1820, at the age of sixteen, he made a public profession of Christianity by uniting with the Bethel Christian Church in Hertford County, North Carolina. The same day on which he united with the church he was baptized by Elder Joseph Thomas (White Pilgrim). He began to preach in 1821, and sinners wept as they listened to the boy preacher. He was ordained in 1822. Moved to Darke County, Ohio, in 1833. He inherited slaves, but was opposed to slavery, and brought his slaves to Ohio and set them free. He felt that God called him to preach the gospel, and after settling in Ohio, as before, he was constantly about his "Father's business," preaching the gospel, and soon organized a church in Greenville, the county seat of Darke County. Other churches around Greenville he organized. He preached in Ohio twenty-three years, living continuously on the farm where he first settled. In 1856 he moved to Iowa, and settled in Van Buren County. He moved to Sandusky, Lee County, in 1859, where he remained till the day of his death. He served the Sandusky church faithfully for twenty-seven years. He died July 25, 1887, aged 83 years, 2 months and 23 days. Funeral sermon by Elder D. M. Helfenstein.

A great and good man has gone home.

HENRY COLE.

NOTE.—Uncle Elijah Williamson settled in Darke County, Ohio, within one-half mile of where I was born and raised. I saw him clear off the house spot where his first cabin was built. His children were my most intimate neighbor companions. I was well acquainted with his manumitted slaves. From a child I heard him preach for twenty years. He received me into the Christian church and baptized me. I saw his first wife die. Called of God to preach the gospel, Uncle Elijah urged, encouraged, and helped me until I was fairly in the work. I heard much more preaching from him than from any other one man.

He was true to the Christian church.

Christian Biblical Institute

STANFORDVILLE, N. Y.

This is the Theological School and Ministerial Training School of the religious body known as "Christians," instituted under the action of the American Christian Convention taken in 1866.

THE PRIMARY DESIGN

of the founders of the school was to aid in preparation for their own ministry; but it is open to all well accredited Christians who desire to prepare for the ministry or other gospel work, without regard to sex, age, or denominational preferences. Its desire is to help build up the kingdom of Christ in any way it can best be done.

Its theological "standard" is the Bible. Hence the object of the school is primarily and chiefly the study of the Bible, especially the New Testament, believing that from this source the preacher draws his best preparations for his work. Its courses of study are arranged with reference to this.

By the accession of Prof. S. G. Palmer to the corps of teachers, the Institute is enabled to do broader and more thorough work in lines especially adapted to the purpose for which the school is established, without adding to the students' expenses.

By the item below it will be seen that the Institute has no income whatsoever from the students, either from tuition or rent of rooms. It is entirely dependent upon the benevolence of friends for funds outside the income from its insufficient endowment. It appeals to the friends in the denomination and any others for funds to enable it to maintain its present standard, and to enlarge the scope of its work.

THE EXPENSES

of the school are light. It aims to bring its privileges within the reach of all by offering its tuition and the use of its very pleasant, furnished rooms free of charge, and by bringing board and other expenses to the lowest figure consistent with wise economy. The buildings are pleasant and pleasantly located. The students' rooms are cheerful, well lighted, and warmed by a hot-water system. The entire expense of a school year, including heat and books, need not be above $85 or $100.

College and Campus, Defiance College.

DEFIANCE COLLEGE

This annual announcement for 1906 is sent forth with gratitude for what has already been accomplished, and with great hopefulness for the immediate future of the college. The college now offers a wider scope of opportunity than ever before in its history. The success of the first three years under the new Board of Control has been most gratifying in every respect. With a competent faculty and the industry of the students the school has established a reputation for scholarship. The enrollment for the past year shows a decided increase.

The library has been doubled, several hundred dollars' worth of equipment added to the laboratory, and a large amount of money has been expended on the grounds, athletic field and tennis courts. An eighteen thousand dollar dormitory is under construction. The courses of study have been revised, and provisions made whereby students remaining in college for the summer terms can complete any one of the standard college courses in three years.

Perfection and progress are the watchwords in all departments. The patronage of old students, friends and the public in general is earnestly solicited.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

The College building is situated in North Defiance, on the east side of Clinton Street. It is a beautiful Queen Anne brick structure, and is situated in the midst of a large campus of more than twenty-five acres, which is covered with fine large trees of nature's own planting. The building is a model of beauty and convenience, its heating and ventilating are of the most approved kind, and it is supplied with good fire escapes. Recitation rooms are large and commodious.

TROWBRIDGE HALL.

A well-built, commodious and spacious Girl's Home. This building was made possible by the generosity of Lyman Trowbridge, one of Defiance's wealthy and most highly respected citizens. By legitimate methods he has accumulated a fortune, which he is now using to bless humanity. The building has been planned after a careful study of similar buildings elsewhere, and will not be surpassed by any in comfort, taste, and convenience. Some rooms are intended for single occupants, others for two. Each room has a large closet, and is lighted, warmed and furnished. The hall contains thirty rooms and will accommodate about forty persons. On the first floor is a large dining hall, designated for both young men and women, that will accommodate about one hundred and fifty.

The home mission work of the convention, as shown by the report of the president of the Christian Missionary Association at the last meeting of the Southern Convention, is in successful operation. The Association, in addition to aiding special points, maintains two general missionaries in its bounds. As regards foreign missions, it is believed there is a steady growth of interest. A special call was made upon the conference for missions at the late session of the Convention.

The officers of the Christian Missionary Association are: Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., President, Elon College, N. C.; Rev. I. W. Johnson, Secretary, Suffolk, Va. The Association meets Tuesday after the first Sunday in December, 1905.

The report of the Committee on Schools and Colleges, made at Berea Church, Nansensond Co., Va., shows the indebtedness of Elon College, to be entirely liquidated and the endowment increased to $30,000. That the churches composing the Convention pay a fixed sum annually of $1,800 for Elon College. Thus the college is freed from embarrassment as to its future progress. At the recent commencement it was decided to build a new dormitory to cost about $20,000, with modern equipments. This building is now in process of erection; it will contain music rooms and art studio, in addition to accommodations for about one hundred young ladies. Prof. E. L. Moffitt, Elon College, N. C., is president of the college, and its financial affairs are entrusted to him.

The Convention has also inaugurated plans for an orphanage, for which considerable funds have already been contributed. Its location was placed in the hands of the following committee: Rev. W. S. Long, D. D., Rev. J. L. Foster, and W. J. Lee, Esq., who have chosen a location near Elon College. The buildings are now being erected. Rev. J. L. Foster, Raleigh, N. C., is secretary of the committee and authorized agent of this fund.

At the Berea Convention, Rev. M. W. Butler, Henderson, N. C., was made Sunday-school Department Secretary. The secretary edits the Young People's Worker, a paper published in the interest of the Sunday-schools in the bounds of the Southern Christian Convention.

The Christian Sun was purchased by the Southern Convention and Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., elected editor.

Starkey Seminary

LAKE MONT, NEW YORK

Owing to the generosity of the late Hon. Francis A. Palmer, of New York, the school has possession of a magnificent new building, equipped with modern appliances for convenience and comfort. Eleven teachers, specialists in their several departments, compose the Board of Instruction, and the students are prepared for any college, trained for business or take finishing courses in art, elocution and vocal and instrumental music. The health record of the school is above the average, and its distance from all demoralizing influence tends to promote moral and intellectual health. Special watch-care is taken of the girls, who are under the supervision of five lady teachers. Terms are very moderate, while the table is kept up to the standard of schools that charge twice or thrice the Starkey rate.

For catalogue or information, address the president,

Franklinton College

FRANKLINTON, N. C.

The college is dependent on its friends for financial support. If it could be suitably equipped for its work, and placed on a firm basis, its usefulness would be increased many fold. A few friends of the institution have remembered it in their bequests, and it is hoped that many others will.

Those who have money to leave, or what would be better, to give now, would do a lasting and immeasurable good, by contributing generously to Franklinton Christian College.

Dare to be a Daniel!

Dare to be true; dare to stand for the Christian Principles, and use the Christian Sunday-school literature. This may not be very correct from a literary point of view, but it is imperative, and most emphatically correct from the practical and perpetuating standpoint of the Christian church and the Christian Publishing Association.

Loyalty North and South

By the loyalty of one layman in Canada and the ministerial co-operation, every Christian Sunday-school in Canada takes and uses the Sunday-school literature published by the Christian Publishing Association of Dayton, Ohio. By the loyalty of the editor of the Christian Sun, and the ministerial co-operation of the south, the Christian Sunday-school literature published by the Christian Publishing Association of Dayton, Ohio, is used in every Christian Sunday-school, of which we have any knowledge, in the Southland.

Other Literature

By the disloyalty and infidelity of some of our laymen and ministers elsewhere, some of the Sunday-schools in Christian churches have been induced to use Sunday-school literature NOT PUBLISHED by the Christian Publishing Association, and some of our churches have been lost to us, as you notice by a recent item in the Herald of Gospel Liberty, that the Christian church property at Randolph, Vt., has just been deeded to a sectarian body. This is not the only church that the Christians have lost in this way in recent years. By small beginnings of disloyalty, unfaithfulness and infidelity to the Christian principles our Sunday-schools and churches are led into sectarianism and are lost to the Christian principles. Will our laymen and ministers and be true and stand for the Christian principles and see that the Sunday-school literature published by the Christian Publishing Association of Dayton, Ohio, is used in their Sunday-schools, and that the Herald of Gospel Liberty is read by their members. The Christian Publishing Association is the property of the Christian church, and is not run for personal or individual profit, but for the cause and the building up of the Christian church.

Dare to be Daniels
